- a) Technical Issues
If a product or license key fails to function due to technical problems that cannot be resolved after support attempts, a refund may be granted.
- b) Duplicate Purchase
If the same product or license key is purchased more than once by mistake, a refund may be issued for the duplicate transaction.
- c) Unauthorized Transaction
If a purchase is made without your authorization, a refund may be issued after proper verification.

NOTE: Refunds are NOT provided for buyer's remorse, change of mind, or dissatisfaction with the product once a license key has been used or activated.
